

State Officer Contract

SkillsUSA Colorado

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

By electing you to a SkillsUSA Colorado office, the membership has entrusted the leadership of its organization to you and your fellow officers. With the acceptance of the honor come duties and responsibilities. Duty is defined as “the conduct, obedience, loyalty, and submission required of an officer.” Responsibility is the “reliability and moral accountability for duties expected of an officer.” Together, duty and responsibility convey the conduct and performance appropriate to all SkillsUSA Colorado officers.

State Officer Candidates must have the following qualifications:

1. Be an active member of SkillsUSA Colorado during the year served as an officer.
2. Have successfully passed or be currently enrolled in a career and technical education (CTE) class for a minimum of one semester.
3. Possess a minimum of a 2.5 cumulative grade point average on your official school transcript.
4. Practice good communication skills.
5. Be familiar with the organizational structure, policies, mission and goals of SkillsUSA Colorado.
6. Be prepared to conduct meetings and serve as a speaker for the organization.
7. Be helpful, respectful and responsible to all individuals.
8. Be willing to assist other officers in accomplishing their tasks.
9. Attend all required meetings including, but not limited to those listed under Professional Conduct #16.

DRESS CODE

State officers shall wear SkillsUSA official dress or attire as the occasion may demand, for all conference activities. SkillsUSA Colorado will provide each officer with a name badge. From the first scheduled activity, officers shall adhere to the dress code requirements as listed below.

- Hair, jewelry, makeup, and nail polish must have a conservative and business like appearance.
- No open ear gauges, visible tattoos, or facial piercings while in official dress or state officer uniform.
- No hats while in official dress or state officer uniform.

SkillsUSA Official Dress:

- See Leadership Handbook
 - If you do not have access to an official SkillsUSA red blazer, one will be provided.

State Officer Uniforms

- State officer shirt or polo (provided by SkillsUSA)
- Black and khaki pants (no cargo pants)
- Brown and black shoes (no athletic shoes)
- Brown and black belt

SUPERVISION

Upon being elected and installed as a state officer, supervision of officers becomes the responsibility of the SkillsUSA Colorado State Director or his/her designee. As well, state officers are under the direct supervision and are the responsibility of the SkillsUSA Colorado State Director or his/her designee for all official SkillsUSA events in which state officers are required to attend and perform the functions of their office. Official events include any event arranged by SkillsUSA Colorado and encompass travel to and from the event.

TRAVEL

SkillsUSA events often require travel. As a state officer, you will be required to travel with the officer team whenever possible. Travel to and from official events may be by bus, car, air or other means. While SkillsUSA Colorado will make every effort to arrange travel with an adult chaperone, there may be situations where a state officer must travel alone. In these cases, arrangements will be made with parents to ensure student comfort and safety.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

As a state officer of SkillsUSA Colorado, you have the responsibility to represent all members of the organization. Your conduct must be exemplary at all times while representing the organization and on your personal time. You will have an opportunity to meet students, advisors, administrators, business, industry and labor representatives during your term in office and your actions will set a standard for all SkillsUSA members to follow. When you sign this contract, it should be with the understanding that your obligations are great, as are the rewards of serving your fellow members.

As a state officer of SkillsUSA Colorado, I agree to adhere to the following rules and regulations:

1. My conduct will be exemplary at all times, during and outside of SkillsUSA functions.
2. I will at all times, respect all public and private property.
3. I will respect authority at all times.
4. I will not possess any type of weapon at any SkillsUSA function.

Internet Code of Conduct

As an officer for SkillsUSA, you are a public figure. As an officer you represent your school, your state association and the national SkillsUSA association. As you post content to personal and public web pages i.e. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube.com or other sites, keep in mind that people you do not know (including potential employers or admissions officers) have the ability to review and archive your personal space. These personal sites are being used as a point of reference to your site. Be sure your personal materials, including comments, photographs, video or sound files, would not embarrass you if they were viewed by SkillsUSA staff, business partners, or instructors, and that they are age appropriate.

Email addresses: You will be provided a SkillsUSA Colorado email address. Be sure to check email daily during your term of office as travel opportunities are often offered via email.

As an officer of SkillsUSA, I will represent SkillsUSA Colorado with respect. This means for my term of office, any content I post on the World Wide Web where SkillsUSA is mentioned on sites such as, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube.com or other sites will be reviewed by my advisor, parent, or state director. My email address used for SkillsUSA business will be monitored and I may be requested to remove unprofessional material.

If I fail to remove and/or post unprofessional or unapproved material, I will be on probation as an officer and subject to the consequences as a state officer for violating the State Officer Contract.

VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES

Violations of above items will result in a warning and/or reprimand. Violations may be grounds for disqualification or suspension from an activity or office. The violator may be sent home at his/her own expense. Proper notification of the violation and action taken will be sent to the appropriate education official(s) and parents or guardians.

SkillsUSA Colorado State Officers may be removed from office for one or more of the following reasons:

1. Failure to perform the duties of their office.
2. Failure to attend required meetings.

3. Failure to follow rules, regulations and responsibilities to act in a professional manner.
4. Failure to meet appropriate deadlines without satisfactory explanation.
